CONFIRMATION OF TITLE

Adrian Gluck hereby confirms that L.N.C.J., Limited, a Jersey Company ("L.N.C.J."), is the sole and exclusive owner of U.S. Patent No. 5,803,501, issued September 8, 1998, entitled "Memorabilia Card" (and all patent applications and patents claiming priority thereto) (the "Patent"). Adrian Gluck further confirms that, as against L.N.C.J., he has no legal or equitable claim of title to the Patent.

The foregoing confirmation is made with reference to the following facts:

1. Adrian Gluck is the inventor of the invention claimed by the Patent.
2. On December 13, 1994, Adrian Gluck assigned all his right, title and interest to the Patent to Laservision, Ltd., a California limited liability corporation (sic) (in formation)(the "1994 Assignment").
3. The organization of Laservision, Ltd. was never perfected but Laservision, Ltd. existed as a de facto corporation. To the extent that Laservision, Ltd. lacked formal existence as a separate legal entity, Adrian Gluck confirms that he held title to the Patent for the sole and exclusive benefit of Laservision Ltd. and that he is estopped from claiming any legal or equitable ownership right in the Patent by virtue of any defect in the formation of Laservision, Ltd.
4. On May 6, 1996, Laservision, Ltd., through its President, Adrian Gluck, assigned all its right, title and interest in the Patent to L.N.C.J. (the "1996 Assignment"). Through a clerical error that neither Laservision, Ltd., nor Adrian Gluck, nor L.N.C.J. noticed at the time, the company name on the 1996 Assignment was incorrectly stated to be "Laservision Productions, Inc." instead of "Laservision, Ltd." Laservision Productions, Inc. never held title to the Patent. Adrian Gluck confirms that it was his intention through the execution of the 1996 Assignment to assign all of the right, title and interest to the Patent then held by Laservision Ltd. to L.N.C.J. and that he believed that the transfer of the Patent from Laservision, Ltd. to L.N.C.J. occurred through his execution of the 1996 Assignment.
5. To the extent that Laservision, Ltd. lacked the legal capacity to hold the Patent and to assign the Patent to L.N.C.J. on May 6, 1996 in the manner that Laservision Ltd. and L.N.C.J. intended, Adrian Gluck confirms that he transferred all right, title and interest to the Patent, whether he held it personally or for the benefit of Laservision Ltd., on May 6, 1996 and further, that he is estopped from claiming any legal or equitable title to the Patent based upon his position as President of Laservision, Ltd. or based upon its defective formation.
6. On March 27, 2001, Judge Alicemarie Stotler ruled, in the alternative, in the case of Telepresence Technologies, LLC v. The Upper Deck Company, SA CV 00-183 AHS, in the United States District Court for the Central District of California, Southern Division (the "Telepresence Litigation"), that L.N.C.J. lacked standing to bring suit on the Patent either because the 1996 Assignment was ineffectual or because L.N.C.J. had lost its title to the Patent through an assignment that the Orange County Sheriff executed under a turnover order in the ex parte proceeding in California Superior Court, Orange County, in connection with Turner v. Laservision Productions, Inc. et al., Case No. Civ. 750 467 ("Turner I").

7. On August 7, 2001, Judge John M. Watson ruled in the case of Turner v. Telepresence Technologies, LLC, et al., Case No. 00CC06736 in California Superior Court, Orange County ("Turner II" and collectively with Turner I, the "Turner Litigation") that the Turner Litigation did not divest L.N.C.J. of its exclusive ownership rights in and to the Patent.
8. Adrian Gluck confirms that Judge Stotler's ruling in the Telepresence Litigation with respect to the 1996 Assignment does not accurately reflect his intentions in the 1994 Assignment and in the 1996 Assignment. Adrian Gluck intended through the 1994 Assignment to irrevocably transfer all his right title and interest in the Patent to Laservision Ltd. and he intended, through his execution of the 1996 Assignment, that all right, title, and interest in and to the Patent should pass irrevocably to L.N.C.J., regardless of whether his signature was made in his personal capacity or as an authorized representative of a third party. To the extent that there is any ambiguity about his intentions with the 1996 Assignment, Adrian Gluck hereby confirms and ratifies that, by that signature, he irrevocably transferred to L.N.C.J. all of his personal right, title and interest to the Patent that may have remained on that date and all right, title and interest to the Patent that Laservision, Ltd. may have had on that date.
9. Adrian Gluck confirms that neither the Telepresence Litigation nor the Turner Litigation altered in any way the irrevocable assignment of the Patent to L.N.C.J. on May 6, 1996. Adrian Gluck confirms that he is estopped from raising any arguments to the contrary.

Quitclaim From Gluck to LNCJ

WHEREAS, Adrian Gluck, a citizen of Canada, residing at 430 North Oakhurst Dr. # 302, Beverly Hills, California 90210 ("the Inventor"), has invented a certain invention entitled "Memorabilia Card" described in United States Patent No. 5,803,501, which issued on September 8, 1998 (the invention and the United States Patent are collectively referred to as "the Patent");

WHEREAS, the Inventor has invented, in addition to the Patent, a series of inventions described in the portfolio of patents and pending patents listed in Exhibit A (the series of inventions and the related patents and pending patents are collectively referred to as "the Patent Portfolio");

WHEREAS, L.N.C.J. Limited, a Jersey company, having an address of Huguenot House, 28 La Motte Street, St. Helier, Jersey, Channel Islands, JE24SZ (also referred to in documentation and also known as LNCJ, LNCJ Limited, LNCJ Ltd., and as a trust) ("LNCJ"), and the Inventor desired to and intended to assign and assigned all right, title, and interest in the Patent from the Inventor to LNCJ through a series of two assignments, a first assignment dated December 13, 1994, and a second assignment dated May 6, 1996 (collectively "the Series of Assignments");

WHEREAS, LNCJ desired to and intended to receive and received an assignment of all right, title, and interest in the Patent Portfolio through a series of assignments (the "Portfolio Assignments");

WHEREAS LNCJ relied upon the validity of the Series of Assignments and the Portfolio Assignments and has incurred obligations and entered agreements in reliance upon the validity of the Series of Assignments and the Portfolio Assignments;

WHEREAS, the assignment of the Patent from Inventor to LNCJ has been questioned, and, as a result, Inventor issued a Confirmation of Title, dated September 6, 2001 (Exhibit B), confirming that Inventor intended to transfer all his right, title, and interest in the Patent to LNCJ and, to the extent that there was any ambiguity about his intentions, Inventor ratified that he transferred to LNCJ all of his right, title, and interest to the Patent;

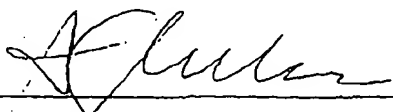

WHEREAS Inventor and LNCJ are both desirous of quieting title in and to the Patent and the Patent Portfolio such that LNCJ is the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title, and interest in the Patent and the Patent Portfolio.

NOW, THEREFORE, to quiet title in the Patent and the Patent Portfolio, for $1,500 and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Inventor hereby quitclaims, assigns, and transfers to LNCJ, its successors and assigns, any right, title and interest to the Patent and the Patent Portfolio that the Inventor may have retained, if any, throughout the Universe, including any and all rights (including causes of action for damages) associated with infringements of the Patent or patents in the Patent Portfolio that took place prior to the date of this quitclaim (that is, from the date the Patent or patents in the Patent Portfolio were issued until the present); the same to be held and enjoyed by LNCJ for its own use and enjoyment, and for its legal representatives, successors, and assignees, to the full end of the term for which the Patent or patents in the Patent Portfolio are granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held by Inventor had this quitclaim not been made.

Inventor hereby covenants that no assignment, sale, agreement or encumbrance has been or will be made or entered that would conflict with this quitclaim.

Inventor further covenants that, upon the request of LNCJ, Inventor will promptly provide LNCJ with all pertinent facts and documents relating to the Patent and Patent Portfolio and will testify as to the same in any legal proceeding related to the Patent and Patent Portfolio and will promptly execute and deliver to LNCJ or its designated legal representative, assignee, or successor, any and all papers, instruments, declaration or affidavits requiring to apply for, obtain, maintain, issue and enforce the Patent and Patent Portfolio.
